SLIP INTO SOMETHING MORE COMFORTABLE AT OCEAN TERMINAL

With the nights drawing in and the cold starting to bite, a new store at Leith's Ocean Terminal is looking to offer shoppers an extra bit of cosiness against the looming Scottish Winter.

The aptly named, Oceans of Slippers, sells the indoor footwear in an abundance of styles and colours and is currently stocking a range of specially designed Christmas slippers.

Opened last Tuesday (October 9) by Graeme Jenkins, owner of leading independent branded footwear retailer, Robert Jenkins, the new store is located on the shopping centre's first floor, opposite Tiki café.

Commenting on the new, unique venture, Graeme Jenkins said: "I am pleased to be opening our first Edinburgh store at Ocean Terminal. There is nothing like it elsewhere and I'm pleased by the reaction consumers have so far had to the shop."

Dennis Jones, Centre Manager, said, "I am delighted to welcome Oceans of Slippers to Ocean Terminal and am pleased Graeme has chosen the centre as the location for his first store."

Journalists are invited to Oceans Terminal to pick up their free pair of slippers,

ENDS.

NOTES TO EDITORS

1. Ocean Terminal houses half a million sq ft of shopping and leisure on three floors, 1600 free car parking spaces, over 75 stores, bars and restaurants, and a 12 screen cinema. Just 10 minutes from the City Centre, Ocean Terminal is at the very heart of the dynamic regeneration of Edinburgh's waterfront.

In addition to many of the UK's foremost high street stores, unique boutiques and a spa, the centre also boasts a superb selection of restaurants and cafés overlooking the Firth of Forth.

Not only does Ocean Terminal play host to an ever-changing programme of events and exhibitions, but it is also home to one of the country's most popular tourist attractions, The Royal Yacht Britannia.
